UTC OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD SELECTION CRITERIA

In 1985 the UTC Alumni Council initiated the Outstanding Service Award to honor an individual who has given outstanding service to the University and community. This award may be given to an individual who is not a UTC alumnus.

Selection criteria for the Outstanding Service Award includes but is not limited to:

1. Outstanding service to the University (recruiting, advocacy, fundraising, faithful service, etc.) that rises above the usual accepted standard of service
2. Community involvement (civic endeavors, philanthropic work, etc.)
3. May be given to an individual who is not an alumnus of UTC.
4. It is important to be specific about the accomplishments and activities of the nominee. Documentation of these services may be included (clippings, letters, etc.)
5. The nomination must communicate to the selection committee what is outstanding about the nominee's service.
