

Publications Board

2007-2008

The Publications Board successfully fulfilled its duties in 2007-2008.

In fall 2007, the Board appointed two new advisors and a new editor for the literary magazine. The review was published in April 2008 right on schedule.

In spring 2008, the Board appointed a new editor for the campus newspaper for 2008-2009 and reappointed the editor of the literary magazine to a second one-year term.

In spring 2008 the Board also voted to extend campus media status to the new campus Internet radio station. The Board will appoint the station director in August/September 2008.
