Chair, Departmental Honors Committee

RE: Annual Report, 2010 – 2011

DATE: May 9, 2011

The Departmental Honors Committee met October 18, 2010 to assign liaisons for previously approved Departmental projects and to approve six new proposals. On March 31, 2011 we met to approve thirty-five new proposals. Thirty proposals were completed during the academic year, and five extensions were granted.

I recommend that the Faculty Handbook be revised to increase the number of members on the DHON Committee. More students are writing a Departmental thesis, thus necessitating more liaisons. The committee also requests that project directors encourage students to edit their projects more carefully and complete them in a timely manner.
