Determining How Much PLUS You May Borrow

A student's Cost of Attendance (COA) is made up of both direct and indirect costs. Direct costs reflect those charges that appear on a student's bill such as tuition, fees, and on-campus housing. Indirect costs are those charges that are associated with attending UTC, but are not added to a student's bill. These costs reflect such items as off-campus housing, books and supplies, personal expenses and transportation. Your student's estimated total cost of attendance is available on their myMOCsnet account. Or use the Estimated Expense Worksheet available in the Forms section at www.utc.edu/financialaid to estimate direct expenses .

Cost of Attendance (Available on student's myMOCsnet account)		$
Total of Other Financial Aid Accepted by Student (including grants, loans and scholarships)	minus	$
You May Borrow Up To: This figure represents the maximum resources that a student may receive in one academic year (fall and spring semesters) If you request a PLUS loan that exceeds the maximum, your loan may be reduced to fit within your student's COA	equals	$
