

OPEIR Web Fact Book Survey - March 2008

The purpose of the Fact Book is to provide the UTC community and external constituencies served by the University with useful and timely data depicting the University's students, programs, operations, and resources.

Information provided in the Fact Book and the other web page links are designed to provide faculty, staff, and administrators with information for strategic and operational planning, and program evaluation. These data are also intended to inform students, parents, and the general public about the University's programs and resources.

Please take a moment to assist in our ongoing efforts to improve the Fact Book by providing your input to us.
