

The Quality Enhancement Plan Committee is developing a definition of STUDENT ENGAGEMENT. We are considering the following factors in developing our definition. Please note how important do you believe each of the follow are in terms of defining student engagement.

Also: Please add other factors that you believe should be included in a definition of student engagement.

Item	Not Important		Of Medium Importance		Very Important
Academic and Intellectual Experiences Class participation and requirements, assignments, involvement with other students in class, service learning, use of technology, diversity, etc.
Mental Activities Memorizing, analyzing, synthesizing, judgments, application of course materials
Examinations Used as a challenge for best work
Reading & Writing Types of reading assignments (books, texts, articles, etc.), papers written, etc.
Problem Sets Problems completed as a part of class and course work
Additional Collegiate Experiences Attendance and participation in art exhibits, theater productions, physical fitness, spiritual activities
Enriching Educational Experiences Internships, study abroad, research projects, study of foreign language, community service/volunteer work, learning communities, independent study opportunities, capstone projects, etc.
Quality of Relationships Relationships with other students, faculty, staff, administration
Time Usage Preparing for class, working (for pay), relaxing & socializing, co-curricular activities, commuting, etc.
Institutional Environment Studying, institutional support for success, diversity, help for non-academic issues, campus events, technology, etc.
Educational and Personal Growth Broad, general education, writing, thinking skills, job-related skills, critical thinking, analysis of issues and problems, gaining technology skills, working in groups, civic responsibilities, etc.
Academic Advising
Overall Satisfaction
Other factors that define student engagement:					