

Residential Learning Communities* are designed to create environments that promote greater student involvement, improved faculty-student interactions, and a more supportive peer climate within the residence halls. Additionally they assist students in integrating diverse curricular and cocurricular experiences.

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES
STUDENTS LIVE TOGETHER AND TAKE COMMON CLASSES

Business, LLC First-year business students ready to live, learn, lead and serve as they prepare to become future business and community leaders.

DISCOVER AND DECLARE For students still trying to find the area of study and future career field that will be most beneficial for them.

HONORS IN THE CITY A freshman-year only experience focusing on civic engagement and preparing to enter the Honors College's IH Program.

THE NEST (NURTURING EFFECTIVE AND SUCCESSFUL TEACHERS) For first-time, freshmen education majors or minors.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND CONCEPT SCIENCE For first-year students with a major in Engineering or Computer Science.

THEMED LEARNING COMMUNITIES
STUDENTS LIVE TOGETHER AND SHARE A COMMON INTEREST

WILD Designed to foster leadership and fitness for members through an outdoor adventure-based setting.

TRANSFER MOCS Designed to help transfer students transition to UTC.

*New RLC may be added for the fall semester

- CONVENIENCE You will live close to classes, activities, and friends.
- SAFETY UTC's Campus police and security officers are always nearby.
- STYLE Nearly all of our residence halls offer apartment-style units, many with a kitchen and in-room washer/dryer.
- FREE WI-FI We offer brand new state-of-the-art wireless with a lightning fast 10 gigabit internet connection.
- LEASES We offer 9 month academic year leases on-campus, so you can avoid a 12 month lease off-campus.
- FLEXIBILITY There is a mid-year release program for students graduating in December.
- SUMMERTIME We have rooms available for students taking summer classes.
- MAINTENANCE If it breaks, our friendly maintenance staff responds quickly to help.
