

Modes of Being With Another

Non-Caring
 ↔
 Caring

- | | | |
|--------------|--------------------|---|
| • Biocidic | Life-destroying | Hurting, harming |
| • Biostatic | Life-restraining | Insensitive
Indifferent |
| • Biopassive | Life-neutral | Absent-minded
Tired |
| • Bioactive | Life-sustaining | Respect
Kindheartedness |
| • Biogenic | Life-giving | Connection
Professional Caring
“someone in that hospital is
with me rather than working on me.” |

Unethical
 ↔
 Ethical

Halldorsdottir, S. (1991). Five basic modes of being with another. In D.A. Gaut et al. (Eds.), Caring: the compassionate healer (pp. 37-49). New York, NY: National League for Nursing.