The Department of English at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga (UTC) invites applications for the position of Lecturer in Children's and Young Adult Literature (non-tenure track, annual appointment). Duties include teaching four undergraduate courses each semester (typically two in children's/YA literature and two in composition), service to the department and college, and advisement of undergraduate majors.

Qualifications: Ph.D. or A.B.D. with specialization in children's and/or young adult literature, teaching experience in children’s and young adult literature, demonstrated excellence in and commitment to undergraduate teaching, and excellent writing, interpersonal, and communication skills. Applicants should submit a letter of interest, vita, graduate transcript, a list of graduate courses taken exclusively in children’s and young adult literature (both for credit and audited), a teaching portfolio with sample children’s and young adult literature course syllabi and assignments, and three letters of reference to facultyvitae23@utc.edu. The search committee will begin screening applications immediately and continue until the position is filled.
