

Residential Learning Communities* are designed to create environments that promote greater student involvement, improved faculty-student interactions, and offer a more supportive peer climate within the residence halls. Additionally, they assist students in integrating diverse curricular and co-curricular experiences.

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES
STUDENTS LIVE TOGETHER AND TAKE COMMON CLASSES

STEM ASPIRE, LLC First-year students who obtained the National Science Foundation Scholarships in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics Program.

HIGH-ACHIEVING MOCS (HAM) A freshman-year only experience focusing on civic engagement and preparing to enter the Honors College's IIH Program.

NEST (NURTURING EFFECTIVE AND SUCCESSFUL TEACHERS) For first-time, freshmen education majors or minors.

BUSINESS, LLC First-year business students get ready to live, learn, lead and serve as they prepare to become future business and community leaders.

THEMED LEARNING COMMUNITIES
STUDENTS LIVE TOGETHER AND SHARE A COMMON INTEREST

GREEN LIVING FLOOR A community that strives to model a sustainable lifestyle that can be implemented at UTC.

TRANSFER MOCS Designed to help transfer students transition to UTC.

*New RLC may be added for the fall 2018 semester

- LEASES We offer 9-month academic-year leases on-campus, so you can avoid a 12-month lease off-campus.
- CONVENIENCE You will live close to classes, activities and friends.
- SAFETY UTC's Campus police and security officers are always nearby.
- STYLE Nearly all of our residence halls offer apartment-style units, many with a kitchen and in-room washer and dryer.
- FREE WI-FI We offer brand-new, state-of-the-art wireless with a lightning-fast 10 gigabit internet connection.
- FLEXIBILITY There is a mid-year release program for students graduating in December.
- SUMMERTIME We have rooms available for students taking summer classes.
- MAINTENANCE If it breaks, our friendly maintenance staff responds quickly to help.
