Mission of Advising at UTC:

The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga strives for student success and views academic advising as a vital component of the educational experience. Advising engages and empowers students to develop educational plans that will meet their academic, career, and personal goals.

Student Expectations

You have responsibilities in the advising partnership to help you be successful. As an advisee, you are expected to:

1. Schedule and attend your required advising appointments each semester.
2. Monitor your progress in your courses and ask your advisor for help as soon as a problem arises.
3. Take responsibility for your schedule, educational goals, and career plans.
4. Come prepared to advising appointments with questions and any assigned tasks complete.
5. Understand degree requirements for majors you are considering.
6. Participate in updating an academic plan (using MyMocsDegree Plan) that will lead you to a timely graduation.
7. Follow-up on referrals your advisor makes.
8. Check your UTC email daily.

Advisor Expectations

To meet the academic advising goals of the University, advisors will be expected to:

1. Provide accurate, program-based knowledge.
 - a. Utilize the University web site, course catalog, class schedule, Clear Paths for Advising, and other University resources to provide accurate information.
 - b. Clearly explain general education, major, degree, and graduation requirements for the program or unit under which they advise.
 - c. Be knowledgeable in current prerequisites, course sequencing, and course offerings for their area.
 - d. Be trained in academic advising functions in Banner, MyMocsDegree, Argos, and other university programs, as well as issues related to student development.
 - e. Assist in creating an academic plan that incorporates the student's major, minor, summer attendance, and desired graduation deadline.
2. Be knowledgeable in academic policies, procedures, processes, and deadlines at the University and department or unit levels.
 - a. Assist in transfer issues and the petitioning process.
 - b. Understand and follow FERPA guidelines.
3. Conduct themselves in a professional and courteous manner while treating students with respect.
 - a. Be available during reasonable hours each semester for academic advisement, general questions, and performance concerns.

- b. Provide means for communicating, scheduling appointments, and keeping accurate, up-to-date records.
4. Refer students to other services, departments, or individuals as the situation requires.

First-Year Advising Process:

During their first year, students advised by the Center for Academic Support and Advisement will meet with their advisor a minimum of twice a semester. Students will receive an email to their Mocs email address (abc123@mocs.utc.edu), instructing them how to select an appointment time. Emails to advisors are professional communications, so please include your full name and UTCID.

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the freshman year, a student should be able to:

1. Recognize and identify available majors in area of interest, understand major and appropriate General Education requirements, and said majors' pre-requisites and co-requisites.
2. Locate their academic advisor's contact information and effectively and professionally communicate with them.
3. Identify the importance of managing their time effectively and keeping commitments, including scheduled appointments with their academic advisor.
4. Recognize the contractual obligations of the academic calendar and catalog including, but not limited to: critical deadlines; FERPA; course repeat policy; and transfer credit processing.
5. Become familiar with the resources available on the UTC website and the essential functions of MyMocsNet. Available web resources include, but are not limited to: the course catalog and schedule, Clear Path for Advising, departmental webpages, and various student support services. MyMocsNet's essential functions include, but are not limited to: MyMocsDegree, course schedule and registration information, grades and other student records, financial resources, and UTC MocsMail.
