CODE OF CONDUCT

Camps are designed for the enjoyment and benefit of all campers enrolled. With that as the objective, we anticipate that no camper is here who does not want to be here. Should any disciplinary problems occur, we will contact the parent/guardian to pick up their camper.

Please read and acknowledge the Youth University Code of Conduct.

1. Campers are expected to demonstrate respect for every person and all property at all times when at Youth University. Campers MUST follow the rules and directions of the camp staff, at all times.
2. Please do not bring the following items: cellular phones, music players, handheld computer games, gum, toys, or valuables. Youth University has no way to secure items and cannot be responsible for lost/stolen items.
3. Youth University is committed to providing a safe and accepting learning environment, as well as work environment for teachers/staff. Physical aggression, continued disrespect/teasing/bullying, or continued disruption of camp activities will result in being removed from an activity or activities and/or being sent home. Our teachers are trained to monitor and evaluate behavior problems. If a decision is made to send a camper home, that decision will be considered final.

By signing below, I agree to the Youth University Code of Conduct and accept it.

I, _____, the parent/legal guardian of _____, understand that if my child is sent home, no refund will be given and the camper will not be eligible for any other Youth University programming
