

We make things
better.<sup>TM</sup>
Especially careers.

BASF - Chattanooga Site EHS Internship

Internships Available

The qualified candidate will assist the EHS Specialist for the Chattanooga Site.

- This position will interface with various functions within the site while working with and developing environmental and safety programs and procedures.
- Support site with EHS document organization, review and preparation.

Selection Criteria:

- Knowledge of MS Office and MS Excel.
- Must be a self-starter and able to make decisions in a fast paced dynamic work environment.
- Action oriented, with good problem solving, analytical multi-tasking skills
- Excellent communication skills
- Demonstrated academic achievement
- Must be currently enrolled at UTC or CSTCC
- Must be seeking degree in Environmental Engineering, Safety, Chemical Engineering or Engineering Technology
- Must be in junior year of engineering at UTC or final semester at CSTCC.
- Be able to work up to 20 hours per week.
- Course work or experience in Environmental and Safety preferred.

To be considered for Spring semester internship (Jan-June 2017), please submit resume and cover letter explaining future aspirations and why you want to work at BASF Chattanooga to:

Contact: Willard Vaughan, PE CIH
Email: Willard.vaughan@basf.com

Deadline to apply is 1/20/2017

150 years

 BASF
We create chemistry