

SUMMARY VITA – Courtney N. Hoss

Adjunct Faculty

Years on Faculty: 5 (original appointment 2007)

Degrees

University of Memphis
Indiana University

Jurisprudence
Philosophy

Ph.D. 2001
B.A., 1998

Other Related Experience

Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz, P.C. (April 2004-September 2007)

Associate of Law

Responsible for responding to EEOC and THRC charges; conducted harassment training and seminars for corporate clients; draft corporate handbooks; conduct internal investigations; draft numerous types of discovery, motions for summary judgment and additional legal pleadings on various legal issues, specifically areas of ERISA, Fair Labor Standards Act and Title VII.

Husch & Eppenberger, P.C. (November 2002-April 2004)

Associate of Law

Negotiated various land and corporate contracts, including purchase and sale of commercial real estate, leases and purchase and sale of corporations; drafted corporate and real estate contracts in connection with loans, real estate and corporate transaction.

Shumaker, Witt, Gaither & Whitaker, P.C. (November 2002- April 2004)

Associate of Law

Negotiated outparcel sales, leases and various other real estate transactions nationwide for large real estate developer, including drafting of all necessary necessary; participated in negotiations for sale and purchase of corporate entities.

Recent Publications

Matthews v. Pickett County: The public duty doctrine and its special duty exception in the face of the Government Tort Liabilities Act, 30 Univ. Mem. Law Review 457 (2000).