

Adolph Ochs Journalism Scholarship Application

Qualifications: Junior or senior majoring in Communication who plans to pursue a career in print journalism; overall and major GPA 3.0; minimum of two semesters remaining before graduation.

Instructions: Please complete the application form by typing in the appropriate information using a PDF reader (like Adobe Reader). Then print out the application, attach relevant samples of work, and turn in the application to the Communication Department's administrative assistant in Frist 309.

Student Information

Name:

UTC ID:

Major/Program:

Minor:

Major/Program GPA:

Overall GPA:

Credit Hours Completed:

Credit Hours This Semester:

Projected Date of Graduation (include Month & Year):

Mailing Address:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Samples of Print Journalistic Work

Please attach to this application examples of in-class and/or out-of-class work you have done in print journalism. Examples of sample work include, but are not limited to, stories written for a class, stories published in The Echo, stories published online, etc.

(cont.)

Course Work Related to Print Journalism

List classes you have completed or are currently enrolled in that relate to print journalism:

Activities Related to Print Journalism

List out-of-class activities that you have done or are currently doing that relate to print journalism (examples include The Echo, work experience, internships, volunteer work, etc):

Career Statement

In 500 words or less, please explain your career goals and how you intend to reach those goals.