

Application for the 2022 Tennessee Governor's School
for Prospective Teachers
at
The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga

General Information

The Tennessee Governor's Schools offer Tennessee high school students intensive learning experiences virtually or on postsecondary campuses. Each school system is encouraged to share the Governor's School information and applications with strong students who meet the criteria listed below.

Nominations for the Tennessee Governor's Schools must be made by high school educators who can speak to the student's potential for success in the program. Each Governor's School convenes an application review committee to select the students invited to attend each school.

Governor's School for Prospective Teachers

University of Tennessee Chattanooga

May 27 - June 24, 2022

The Mission Statement of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga states that "The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga is a driving force for achieving excellence by actively engaging students, faculty and staff; embracing diversity and inclusion; inspiring positive change; and enriching and sustaining our community."

At the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga we hold 4 goals at our core for guidance. The goals are as follows: "Transform lives through meaningful learning experiences; Inspire, nurture and empower scholarship, creativity, discovery, innovation and entrepreneurial initiatives; Ensure stewardship of resources through strategic alignment and investments; and Embrace diversity and inclusion as a path to excellence and societal change."

The Governor's School for Prospective Teachers will provide students with the following opportunities: "Achieve a realistic understanding of teaching; Understand themselves better as learners and future teachers; critically evaluate effective teaching strategies; and plan, teach and critique short lessons".

Our primary mission is as follows, "Encourage Tennessee's brightest students to consider teaching as their profession. The program includes an overview of the myths and realities of the education profession, an examination of effective teaching strategies, resource availability, computer and other technological applications, observations and critiques of teaching performances, analysis of exemplary teaching and an introspective view of learning and teaching styles. The major principles of our conceptual framework are Performance, Professionalism, and Partnership. The overall focus of the school is to broaden students' perceptions about the exciting challenges and possibilities associated with the teaching profession."

Application deadline: January 15, 2022

Due to the COVID 19 Pandemic the 2021 Governor Schools may be conducted in a completely virtual setting if the pandemic is still impacting Tennessee. For this application to be processed correctly please answer the following question to indicate your level of attendance interest.

Place an "x" in the right-hand column to indicate your potential attendance status.

1. Only if it was a resident program on a host campus
2. Only if it was a virtual program
3. I would attend either a resident or virtual program

Submitting the Application:

Nominating educators should email, mail, or electronically submit completed applications following directions provided by the respective Governor's School(s). Applications submitted directly by students will not be accepted. The student may keep a copy of the application, excluding the confidential Teacher Reference forms and the confidential Counselor/Administrator Verification form; the nominating educator should keep one complete copy of the submitted application package.

Application Submission Instructions

Ensure applications are complete, arranged in the correct order, and contain all required signatures and documents as outlined below.

1. Nominating educators must submit applications electronically or with a postmark no later than the deadline(s) listed on page two of each application.
2. Each Governor's School has specific essay and writing sample questions. All questions must be answered and submitted online or with the application packet.
3. Class rank, class size, numerical test scores, etc., must be verified by the school counselor or school administrator, if available. Please note that while PSAT, SAT, and ACT scores are not mandatory, but school administrators are strongly encouraged to include this information if available.
4. Students are to list two teachers (see school-specific list) to complete the confidential Teacher's Reference forms. If the teacher is not the faculty member nominating the student, he/she should return the completed reference forms directly to the nominating educator. There is a space available at the bottom of the teacher reference form to put the name of the school personnel to whom the form is to be returned.
5. An official transcript must be included in the application packet or uploaded online.
6. A personal photo is not required but is an optional submission document.

Governor's School for Prospective Teachers Application Questions

Instructions - Please consider the following questions for response. All answers should be crafted in an essay format. Each question must be answered completely and on separate pages. Use Times New Roman, 12 pt. font, and double space (For essay answers only).

1. Attach a resume outlining personal information to include experiences with children and peers, honors received, travel, hobbies, and unique interests and abilities.

2. In an essay of approximately 400 words, explain why you are interested in this Governor's School, what you expect to gain from the experience, and how you plan to use this experience to shape your academic and career choices. The essay should reflect all elements of good writing, including organization, thesis, paragraph structure, and supporting details.

3. Think of a memorable teacher you have had in the past, or currently have now. What makes them an effective teacher? Reflect and briefly discuss what makes them effective. Then, discuss in further depth why you feel you have the potential to be an effective teacher and leader, and why you are interested in teaching.
