

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

FOR THE PRE-LAW, ETHICS AND JUSTICE MAJOR TRACK

LOGIC REQUIREMENT.

One course (3 hours) from the following:

- PHIL 2110: Logic, Language and Evidence
- PHIL 3110: Symbolic Logic

HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY.

One course (3 hours) from the following:

- PHIL 3510: History of Ancient Greek and Roman Philosophy
- PHIL 3520: History of Medieval Philosophy
- PHIL 3530: History of Modern European Philosophy

ETHICS AND DIVERSITY.

Two courses (6 hours) from the following:

- PHIL 2210: Introduction to Ethics
- PHIL 2250: Biomedical Ethics
- PHIL 3220: Ethical Theory
- PHIL 4250: Ethics and Professions
- PHIL 4500: Phenomenology, Postmodernism and Postcolonialism
- PHIL 4830: Feminist Theory
- PHIL 4840: Values and the Environment
- PHIL 4920R: Topics in World Philosophy

LEGAL AND POLITICAL THEORY.

Two courses (6 hours) from the following:

- PHIL 3450: Epistemology
- PHIL 4300: Nietzsche, Marx, Freud
- PSPS 3052: Political Philosophy I
- PSPS 3053: Political Philosophy II
- PSPS 3054: Contemporary Political Ideas
- PSPS 3055: Philosophy of Law

CAPSTONE REQUIREMENT.

- PHIL 4930: Topics in the Philosophy of Law

PHILOSOPHY ELECTIVES.

12 additional units (36 hours) in philosophy.

At least 6 (18 hours) must be at the 3000 level or above.

QUESTIONS?

Please visit us online at utc.edu/philosophy,
or contact Dennis-Plaisted@utc.edu.

Scan the QR code to apply now.

PHILOSOPHY

OF PRE-LAW, ETHICS AND JUSTICE

PHILOSOPHY DEGREES AND LAW

Have you ever considered going to law school? Are you interested in examining questions about the nature of law and how the law relates to issues of ethics and justice? Did you know that students who major in philosophy are the top scorers on the LSAT?

The philosophy department at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga has developed a specialized curriculum specifically for philosophy majors interested in pursuing post-graduate careers in law and justice. The Pre-Law, Ethics and Justice (PLEJ) major offers a unique opportunity to develop the analytical thinking skills needed to succeed in law school. If you want to gain tools that will help you think about the law—and not just practice it—then the PLEJ major is an ideal fit for you.

Take your first steps toward a career in law and justice today. Apply now!

POST-GRADUATION OPPORTUNITIES FOR PHILOSOPHY: PRE-LAW, ETHICS AND JUSTICE MAJORS

Law School

Paralegal Services

Graduate Study in Philosophy

Public Service

Careers in Politics

