Resources available to UTC students

There are many services available to UTC students to help them succeed academically. You may wish to utilize these resources. Should any of these services pertain to the issues that you outline in your appeal, you may submit documentation that you have tried to mitigate your circumstances by seeking assistance.

Counseling and Career Planning Center

338 University Center ♦ (423) 425-4438

The reasons why people seek counseling are as varied as people themselves. Students coming into the Center for counseling are usually seeking more effective and rewarding lives by addressing personal problems, career questions, skill development issues, or the stressors of being in college. Students come to the Counseling and Career Planning Center for many reasons, including test anxiety, depression, stress management, study skills, relationship stress, and adjustment to college life.

Office for Students with Disabilities

102 Frist Hall ♦ (423) 425-4006

The Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) is committed to ensuring that each student has equal access to all educational opportunities and maximizes their potential regardless of the impact of their disability. Students with disabilities must register with OSD to determine if they qualify to receive accommodations.
