The United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) places responsibility on the student to understand and comply with immigration law. Failure to comply with these regulations will mean the loss of your student status. We refer to this as being "out of status." Falling out of status has very serious consequences. For example, you could be prevented from re-entering the U.S. for three to ten years, depending on the length of your status violation. For status violations of 180-360 days, a three-year exclusion is imposed.
