Proposal to Rename the General Management Concentration

Department of Management

Brief Description of Change

The Management department wishes to change the name of the “General Management” concentration to “Management”.

Rationale for the Change

This change is being requested in order to better name the concentration, removing any possible “negative” connotation of the term “General”.

Economic and Pedagogical Consequences

No economic or pedagogical impacts from this proposal are anticipated.

Relation and Requirements to other Departments/Programs

Changing the concentration name from “General Management” to “Management” will entail no additional requirements or resources, either within the College of Business or within the University.
