

UTC Advisory Board Meets on Tuesday, May 14

The Advisory Board for the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga will meet on Tuesday in the University Center Foundation Room on campus. The meeting begins at 1 p.m. EST.

The agenda includes the University's budget recommendations for the upcoming fiscal year that begins on July 1; proposed modifications to the Advisory Board's bylaws; and Title IX training for Advisory Board members.

The UTC Advisory Board was created pursuant to the UT FOCUS Act passed by the Tennessee General Assembly in 2018. The board is comprised of five members appointed by the governor and approved by the General Assembly, one UTC faculty representative appointed by the UTC Faculty Senate and one UTC student representative.

The full agenda and materials for the meeting are available by contacting the individual below.

Disabled persons who wish to attend the meeting may contact the individual below to request auxiliary aids or services needed to facilitate attendance. Contact may be made in person, in writing, by email, by telephone or other manner and no later than 5 p.m. EST on Friday, May 10, 2019.
