

Reduced Course Load Request

Please TYPE your responses on this form. The Office of International Student and Scholar Services does NOT accept handwritten forms.

F-1 students who wish to drop below full-time enrollment must obtain approval for a reduced course load (RCL) by submitting this form — and additional documentation if required — to the Office of International Student and Scholar Services.

To maintain legal immigration status, an F-1 student may NOT drop below full-time enrollment without prior approval from the Office of International Student and Scholar Services.

Type your answers into the required fields and email this form and any additional required documentation as a PDF attachment to your Designated School Official. The DSO for undergraduate students is Eunice Davis (eunice-davis@utc.edu), and the DSO for graduate students is Lora Cook (lora-cook@utc.edu).

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services places responsibility on the student to understand and comply with immigration law. Failure to comply with these regulations will mean the loss of your F-1 international student status. This has very serious consequences. For example, you could be barred from reentering the U.S. for up to 10 years, depending on the length of your status violation.
