

Students' Right to Know Information Disclosure

The Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA) includes many disclosures and reporting requirements as amended by the Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA). The disclosures are intended to help students and parents make better informed decisions about higher education. With this goal in mind, UTC has created this document to better help inform students, parents, and the Chattanooga community. Click the links below for corresponding information.

Financial Aid and Scholarship

- Financial Aid and Scholarship Information
- How to apply for Financial Aid and Scholarship
- Requirements for Withdrawal and Return of Federal Financial Aid
- Standards to Receive Financial Aid
- Student Loan Information
 - Initial Loan Counseling
 - Exit Counseling
 - Institutional Code of Conduct for Education Loans
 - Preferred Lender Lists
 - Preferred Lender Arrangements
- Scholarship Information

General Institutional Information

- University Accreditation and Memberships
- Academic Accreditation and Program Review
- Cost of Attendance
- Net Price Calculator
- Refund Policy
- Campus Map
- Disability Resource Center
- Academic Programs
- Textbook Information
- Faculty
- Center for Career and Leadership Development

General Student Information

- Privacy of Student Records –Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)
- Student Diversity
- Transfer Requirements
- Articulation/Graduation Requirements
 - Undergraduate
 - Graduate
- Student Activities – Campus Life
- Honor Code – Copyright Infringement and Sanctions
- Computer Use – Acceptable Use Policy
- Voter Registration

Health and Safety

- Drug and Alcohol Education
- Vaccinations/Immunizations Requirements
- Crime and Fire Safety Policies
 - Crime and Fire Log
 - Annual Security and Fire Safety Report

Student Outcomes

- Retention Rate
- Graduation Rates
- Transfer-out Rate
- Job Placement for Graduates and Rates
- Equity in Athletics (search for University of Tennessee-Chattanooga)
- Student Athlete Enrollment