Housing and Residence Life

Housing & Residence Life Student Handbook

Mission and Vision

Our Vision:

Through partnerships, UTC Housing and Residence Life seeks to unify students in learning communities that provide opportunities for student engagement, active learning, and responsible living.

Our Mission:

UTC Housing and Residence Life partners with students to enhance their college experience by providing:

- A variety of clean, safe, and convenient housing options
- Opportunities for student engagement through active learning and leadership
- A supportive environment which appropriately challenges residents to develop academically and socially

Residence Life Staff

Housing and Residence Life employs a wide variety of students and professional staff members who work to ensure that our on-campus residents have the best experience. Below are descriptions of some of the staff members you will find in your complex along with what they do.

- Resident Assistants (RA)
 - RAs are student staff members, employed by Housing & Residence Life, who assist students in their acclimation to the residence halls and the university. RAs provide information about activities, events, policies and assist students with roommate conflicts, homesickness, and academic concerns. Each RA also implements residence education efforts in their assigned floor/section, which may include hosting activities for their assigned community or residents or encouraging attendance at various University events. Your Resident Assistant is the best person to go to if you have questions or concerns. Your RA has received training in responding to concerns and can assist you with most any issue you may be having. In most cases, your RA can help you explore your concerns and refer you to the proper university staff to help you resolve your problem.
- b. Assistant Resident Director
 - Assistant Resident Directors (ARD) are the Graduate students who assist the Resident Director in managing and operating the complex in West Campus Housing and Palmetto Place.
- c. Building Assistant
 - Building Assistants are in each complex to assist with both facilities and residence education concerns. They are involved in the day-to-day operations involved in our complexes. They assist with everything from mail to maintenance requests. They are an excellent resource if you have any questions during your time on campus.
- d. Resident Directors
 - Each residence hall has a Resident Director who is a full-time professional with at least a master's degree living in each complex. The RD manages the day-to-day operations of residential complexes, supervises RAs, and oversees all residence education efforts and conduct issues. RDs are available as a resource to residents in a variety of ways, such as assisting with facilities concerns; providing mediation and follow up for roommate,

- resident, and community issues; and supporting resident academic endeavors.
- e. Assistant Directors for Residence Education
 - Work with and supervise Resident Directors. Additionally, they work with the development and implementation of our residential curriculum, residential learning communities, and faculty-in-residence.
 - f. Maintenance and Custodial Staff
 - Maintenance and Custodial Staff provide safe, clean, and comfortable residential facilities. In addition to maintaining and cleaning common spaces, the custodial and maintenance staff respond to maintenance requests – submitted in Manage My Housing– when damage or items need repair in your assigned space. These staff members also complete preventative maintenance and respond to emergencies.
 - g. Administrative Services Staff
 - The full-time and student staff members on the Administrative Services team oversee business operations in the University Housing office, administer Manage My Housing, and manage incoming and outgoing communications via phone, email, website, and social media. This team collaborates with Resident Directors in managing assignments, occupancy, room changes, and a variety of other services such as room selections, exemption and release requests, and accommodations.

Manage My Housing

Manage My Housing is your gateway to all things housing and meal plan at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, and it will allow you to do all the following:

- Complete a housing application (or request a housing exception).
- Check the status of or cancel your housing application.
- Submit roommate requests and communicate with roommates.
- Pick your room during the room assignment process (returners only).
- View your room assignment and roommate information.
- Select a meal plan.

Resident Life Community Activities

- h. Residential Curriculum Model: WSE (Wellness, Scholarship, and Engagement)
 - Housing and Residence Life connects living and learning to enhance the overall student experience. The Residential Curriculum provides intentional learning opportunities within the residence halls that will aid in students' growth, development, and student success. At UTC, our model has four: Wellness, Scholarship, and Engagement.
 - Learning Goals and Objectives (WSE Pillars)
 - Wellness

For many students, living on campus for the first time offers them the first opportunities to independently take personal responsibility for their actions and decision-making. We are committed to helping students develop the skills to live independently in a manner that is safe, healthy, and supportive of their ongoing growth and development.
 - Objectives
 1. Residents should be able to identify resources on campus that can assist with their personal well-being.
 2. Residents shall develop skills to help them engage in conflict resolution.

1. Residents should be able to understand the importance of responsible decision making and shall hold themselves accountable for the actions they make.
2. Identify best practices for personal development (Independent Living) both currently and in the future.
3. Develop a basic understanding of financial literacy.
4. Connect with resources to support their holistic wellbeing.

- Scholarship

In conjunction with the Academic Mission of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, we believe that fostering academic success in the residence halls will lead to greater student retention and persistence to graduation. Effective scholarship starts by successfully navigating the transition from high school to college and continues as students explore their chosen course of study and potential career opportunities.

Objectives

1. Residents should be able to identify resources on campus and three skills that can help them succeed academically.
2. Residents should be able to make a personal connection with at least 1 faculty member during their time living on campus.
3. Residents shall develop skills and engage with resources on campus that will help them in major exploration and in the post-graduation career
4. Participate in deeper exploration into their own academic programs.
5. Begin to explore opportunities to prepare oneself for their post-undergraduate career (ex: Jobs, internships, etc.).
6. Connect with resources to help support their academic persistence.

- Engagement

Students do not have to go through college alone. The on-campus experience poses many opportunities for students to engage with their Resident Assistant, their peers, the campus community, and greater Chattanooga community.

Objectives

1. Residents should be able to identify who their RA is and what their role in the community is.
2. Residents shall attend at least one event in the residence hall each semester that allows them to connect with other residents in the community.
3. Residents shall develop a sense of belonging to the UTC community by attending events happening in the greater campus community and to get involved in student organizations.
4. Residents shall be given opportunities to go off-campus and engage with the local Chattanooga community as well as the Greater East Tennessee community.
5. Connect with their Resident Assistant, who serve as a resource, mentor, and source of support for them.
6. Develop the confidence and skills to increase their involvement on-campus.
7. Participate in opportunities to give back to the Greater Chattanooga community through service-learning.

- i. Residence Hall Association (RHA)

- RHA is an organization dedicated to the community of students living on campus at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. RHA believes in the importance of community and the well-being of all on-campus residents. RHA will strive to make the on-campus housing experience meaningful and educational. RHA will provide many leadership opportunities and learning experiences through programming, leadership conferences, student advocacy, and community involvement.

j. Departmental Initiatives

- Departmental initiatives are reoccurring large scale programs that support the social and educational goals of our residents. Housing and Residence Life is committed to establishing events that connect students to the staff and department, maximizing the availability of resources and opportunities to our residents.
- EXAMPLES OF DEPARTMENTAL INITIATIVES:
 - Welcome Week events– The department supports fall and spring University initiates by hosting large scale events for when residents arrive to campus and connect to each other.
 - Housing Resource Fair – An event held during the first week of classes in the fall semester to connect residents to the resources on campus they learned about during orientation.
 - Fuel up for Finals – An event put on right before finals for relaxation and resources for students.
 - Mystery Bus Tours – An off-campus event providing students the opportunity to engage in the greater Chattanooga community experiences during weekend or late-night hours.
 - Pizza with the Chancellor – An event for students and faculty to engage in conversations with leadership on questions they may have on UTC and the Universities plans for the future.
 - Live On Job Fair – Live on event focused on connecting residents to employment opportunities on campus.
 - Wellness Week – Weeklong event with daily workshops from different campus partners focusing on the wellness wheel.

k. Academic Initiatives

- Academic initiatives are programs, services, and learning communities that support the academic needs and goals of our residents. Housing and Residence Life is committed to establishing relationships with faculty and staff in order to maximize the availability of academic resources to our residents, including regular interaction between faculty and residents outside of the classroom. Housing and Residence Life includes academic initiatives within an RA's training and as part of the RA position. This is essential because the RA may be the first staff member who notices any signs of residents who are not engaged in their academic career. RAs are integral in fostering and cultivating an environment and community that places academics as a core priority.
- EXAMPLES OF ACADEMIC INITIATIVES:
 - Academic support – Housing and Residence Life identifies residents who drop below full-time status or on academic probation. These residents will receive a letter from Housing and Residence Life, which provides academic resources and an offer to meet one-on-one to discuss academics and anything else.
 - "Scholars in Residence" academic excellence recognition – All on-campus residents who are on the Dean's List in the fall semester are invited to attend a recognition ceremony and reception on President's Day.
 - Journey Tables – Residential students are invited to participate in a dinner where faculty will share their stories about how they got to where they are at this time in their career. The residents will have the opportunity to engage with faculty and Faculty in Residences during the dinner.
 - Tutoring in Residence Halls – Housing and Residence Life has partnered with the Center for Academic Support and Advisement to offer tutoring in the residence halls.

- Academic Coaching- Housing and Residence Life has partnered with the Center for Academic Support and Advisement to offer academic coaching. Peer Academic Coaches (motivation, setting goals, time management, organization, navigating Canvas, and utilizing campus resources).
- I. Residential Colleges and Residential Learning Communities
 - Each academic college has a home in Housing and Residence Life as a Residential College. Students involved in a major in these colleges are invited to live within these Residential Colleges. Each Residential College may have 1 or more Living Learning Community associated with it.
 - We offer a variety of Residential Learning Community (RLC) options that are categorized as either Themed Learning Communities (TLC) or Living Learning Communities (LLCs). Housing and Residence Life collaborates with campus partners to incorporate advising, faculty involvement, tutoring, and more into these programs. TLCs allow students to live within a common community with a specific focus, supported by a campus department specializing in that focus. Residents of our LLCs live in a common community; however, the focus is of an academic nature with a specific academic partner. Residents living in an LLC are registered for a minimum of one common academic course.

General Information

- m. Applying for Housing/ Housing Contract Information
 - Application
 - Each student applying for housing is required to pay one-time $25 non-refundable application fee. Each student is required to complete an application before they are eligible to receive an assignment.
 - Confirmation
 - Prospective resident must remit a four hundred-dollar ($400) pre-payment to retain a room assignment. The $400 pre-payment will be deducted from the full fall balance of the rent owed for the room. The remaining balance will be assessed at the time other University charges are billed, typically the second week of July and early December for fall and spring semesters respectively and will appear on Resident's Mocs Express statement. The pre-payment may be refundable in full if cancellation is received prior to May 1. If cancellation is received prior to June 1, student will be refunded 50% of the prepayment. After June 1, there are no refunds for the prepayment. Failure to pay university fees (including housing) or confirm attendance at the University will result in classes being dropped and potentially a late fee.
- n. Contractual Agreements
 - When a student agrees to the electronic housing contract, the agreement covers occupancy for an entire academic year, unless specifically indicated otherwise in the contract itself.
 - Students will not be able to check-in before the beginning of the contract period and are expected to check-out by the contract end date. Failure to do so will result in additional fees.
 - When a student ceases to be enrolled at UTC, they may be required to vacate the premises within 48 hours of withdrawal from the University. Contract cancellation fees will apply, please see your contract for details. All residents must be enrolled as a full-time student at UTC unless exempted by the Housing Office.
- o. Contract Release

- Housing facilities are rented for the academic year. No resident may withdraw from housing except in case of extreme necessity and approved by the University. Cancellation of registration or academic suspension does not automatically release the resident from the contract. Subletting by the resident is not permitted.
 - Students should submit their request to break their academic year housing contract by filling out the online "Housing Cancellation" form located in Manage My Housing. Residents who are approved to be released from their housing contract will be subject to a fee in accordance to a cancellation fee; review the website for most up to date details.
 - Residents must also complete an official room check-out with a member of the Housing & Residence Life staff before leaving. Be aware that if you do not follow the above steps for a check out, you will be assessed charges in addition to rent.
- p. Consolidation
- Housing reserves the right to make any changes to the accommodation it deems proper or necessary. Apartments are to be occupied by the maximum allowable number of residents. In case one of the roommates moves, the resident(s) who remain agrees to accept an assigned roommate(s) or to move to another room upon request. When available, a resident may request a double room to be occupied privately at a higher rate.
- q. Check In
- When checking into a room you will be given a key(s), Move-in agreement and Room Inspection online through Manage My Housing. This Room Inspection is particularly important when charges are assessed at the end of the year. You agree to the room's condition, it is your responsibility to maintain it. Please inspect your room carefully, list any discrepancies on your online copy, and submit your notes through the online system. You will have 48 hours to complete the Room Inspection. Any new damages not on the RI will be billed to you and your roommate(s).
- r. Check Out
- Housing expects all students to leave within 24 hours of their last exam, or by the expiration date, whichever comes first. Graduating seniors are required to check out by noon on the day after graduation. Students moving into summer campus housing assignments may be consolidated until their summer assignment is available.
 - When vacating your room, all residents must complete an official checkout with a member of the housing staff. Be sure to sign up for a check out time with your RA or in your complex office. Before a resident can be checked out of his/her room, it should be clean, and all personal belongings removed. During checkout, the condition of the room is evaluated and noted on an RCR. A final walk through of the apartment is done by the Resident Director after all residents have checked out. Damage charges will be assessed at this time (Note: No staff member, including an RA, can make verbal guarantees of an absence of charges).
- s. Fee Assessment
- After checkout, each room inspection report is reviewed. If deficiencies or damages are evident, the resident may be assessed a fee for replacements, cleaning, or repairs. Students will also incur fees for failing to return their keys or to complete an official checkout. These fees will be placed on the student's university account and should be paid in a timely fashion.
- t. Incident Reports
- Incident reports are written by the Resident Assistants to communicate the facts of an incident to the Resident Director, in the Housing Office, and Student Code of Conduct office. Incident reports are used to document policy violations, theft, damage, or other emergencies. If you are named in an incident report, you may be asked to speak with your Resident Director or someone from the Student Conduct Office. Students found to be responsible for the behavior described in a report may be assigned sanctions.

u. Keys

- Residents are issued keys to their apartment/bedroom and mailbox where applicable. Misuse of keys, such as loss or lending to others, jeopardizes safety and may be grounds for disciplinary action. Loss of a key or damaged key should be immediately reported to the Resident Director. If keys are lost, the locks will be changed at the resident's expense. Possessing, using, or duplicating University keys, University access cards or University identification cards without authorization from the University or unauthorized entry into or use of university facilities is prohibited.

v. Lock Out

- If a student mistakenly locks themselves out of their room, a loaner key may be obtained at the residence hall complex office. For safety and security reasons, students are required to show a photo ID to receive a loaner key. The loaner key must be returned within a 30 minute window. If the key is not returned within a 48-hour period, the lock will be changed, and the associated charges will be assessed to the student's account. Students are allowed to check out a loaner key three (3) times per academic year without penalty. On the fourth and successive times thereafter, a service charge per lockout/loaner key will be assessed to the student's account.

w. Lost Keys

- Keys are to remain in the possession of the person to whom they are issued. If you lose your key, you must immediately inform a staff member so that the security of your room can be established as quickly as possible.
- Lost keys will result in a lock change and associated costs.

x. Lost and Found

- UTC Housing is not responsible for property which is found after a resident checks out. Residents cannot store items in their rooms, even if they plan to return to the same assignment next fall. Any items left in a resident's room, either intentionally or accidentally, will be removed and discarded.
- If you lost an item, please contact the UTC PD (423-425-4357) regarding their Lost & Found.

y. Mail Services

- UTC residents are assigned a mailbox in their building, which will be shared with all roommates. Mailbox combinations/keys will be issued at the time of check in. Mail will be delivered to each complex Monday through Friday. Packages for West Campus, Johnson Obear, Boling, Lockmiller and Stagmaier will be delivered to the building. Email notifications will go out with hours to pick up from your complex office. UC Foundation, Walker, Stophel, Decosimo and Guerry packages will be delivered to the Administration Building where residents can pick them up during business hours. Mailboxes for outgoing mail are located throughout the campus. Stamps may be purchased at Mail Services in the Administration Building on Palmetto. Upon checking out of your complex, please complete a forwarding address form if appropriate. This will allow your mail to be directed to the appropriate location.

z. Room Assignments and Room Changes

- The University expects students to continue residency in the room to which they are assigned. However, it realizes that changes are sometimes mutually beneficial.
- Once on campus, residents may submit a request for Room Change. Requests made require a meeting with the Resident Director to establish the need for a room change. If the request is granted, a room change fee may be assessed. Room changes are contingent upon room availability. Vacancies can be filled at any time. Residents may be notified when new residents are assigned to their room.

CARE OF A ROOM

a. Bed Bugs

- Housing and Residence Life is committed to an effective and efficient response to residents who suspect they may have bedbugs. If residents suspect they may have bedbugs, they should immediately contact Housing and Residence Life personnel to ensure that a work order is submitted, and Bed Bug Protocol steps can be enacted.

b. Damages

- Residents are responsible for the condition and care of the accommodation to which they are assigned and shall reimburse the University for all damage to, or loss of university fixtures, furnishings, or property furnished under the contract. Charges for damage and cleaning will be assessed to the student and should be paid promptly. Please refer to information regarding your Move In Inspection for damages assessed.

c. Decorations

- All residents are encouraged to decorate their living space. We hope that you and your roommate enjoy working together to create a mutually satisfying living environment. As you decorate, remember to follow the guidelines to ensure that your creative efforts do not cause hazards for you or others. State Fire Code Regulations must always be adhered to, this includes covering no more than 20% of walls or doors. Rugs outside interior buildings entrances are prohibited.
- Hanging Decorations: When hanging decorations on your walls, doors, or other surfaces remember to use only reusable, non-adhesive putty for cinderblock walls and 3M strips. Glue, large nails, screws, duct tape, carpet tape, or double-sided tape will damage surfaces and you will be responsible for repair costs. Stickers, wallpaper, or adhesive-backed shelf paper cannot be affixed to any University property for the same reasons. Nothing should be hung on or around sprinkler system heads or windows (Residents are encouraged to use tension rods if they would like to hang curtains). Residents are responsible for damages incurred by hanging items in their room or apartment that do not meet these standards.
 - LED light strips are not allowed to be hung up in the residence halls. They can burn the paint or tear the paint off during removal. Any damage left by these will be charged to the resident for repair.
- Door Decoration: When decorating your room door, you are not allowed to cover the room number, door knocker, or peephole. Decorations should allow residents access to the locking mechanism and doorknob. Exterior doors are public spaces and if decorations do not comply with Housing and Residence Life's mission they may be removed at the discretion of the University.

d. Dishwashers

- To maximize the efficiency of the dishwasher provided, residents are expected to pre-rinse all dishes. Failure to adequately remove food from dishes may result in dried-on food and clogged drains. Only soap designated for dishwashers is to be used. The utilization of dish soap not specifically designated for dishwasher use can cause damage and flooding of the machine.

e. Garbage Disposals

- A garbage disposal is a machine that grinds food waste and allows it to be washed down the sink drain. To avoid problems, the following are directions on how to use a garbage disposal and keep you safe:

- The food to be disposed of should be placed in the disposal while the disposal is OFF.
 - Turn on the cold water.
 - Turn on the garbage disposal.
 - Listen until you hear the food clear the disposal.
 - Turn OFF the disposal. Let the water run 15 seconds more to flush the pipe.
 - Turn the water off.
- Improper use of garbage disposal can be dangerous. Keep your hands far away from moving parts. Please follow these guidelines:
 - Always run cold water before and during the use of the garbage disposal.
 - Starchy food like rice and pasta can cause disposals to clog and create plumbing problems. Limit the quantities of this type of food that you dispose of in your garbage disposal.
 - Bones, cornhusks, and other high-fiber items should not be put into the disposal as they may clog the drain.
 - Keep eating utensils and other items from falling into the disposal.
- f. General Maintenance
 - Custodial services are provided by the housing department to clean public areas. Residents have the responsibility for hanging up and putting away their clothes, making their beds, and generally keeping the rooms clean. No one can remove screens from windows or move furniture out of the unit.
 - Misappropriate use or removal of furnishings will be the responsibility of the residents of the room or apartment and they will be billed immediately for either recovery or returning the articles to their original place.
 - Maintenance Requests
 - If something in a resident's room, apartment, or complex community is not working properly, then the resident may complete a work order online at www.utc.edu/housing by clicking on "Manage My Housing". A maintenance request provides important information about a repair that is requested and the date that the request was made. Every attempt will be made to complete repairs in a prompt manner (Note: To ensure that the work order is properly submitted, follow all instructions online. This includes clicking and confirming the submission – you may be required to click submit twice. You will know the process is complete when you receive a confirmation number).
 - Maintenance requests are worked on daily (M-F) and repairs are completed with priority going to more pressing repairs. Emergency situations, regardless of the date they are filed, will be handled first. Routine repairs will follow emergencies in the order that the work order was filed and according to the availability of materials. Service repair persons with legitimate work orders for an area are allowed access to that area. If the occupant is not in the apartment or suite, the maintenance worker will enter for the stated purpose only and the privacy of the resident will be respected.
 - Submission of a routine or emergency maintenance request may result in a charge to a resident's account for the cost of the repair. Residents who fail to report maintenance issues that cause subsequent problems will be held financially responsible for all damages. Housing and Residence Life will not have knowledge of or be able to repair unreported maintenance issues.
- g. Interruption of Services
 - There may be times when services (e.g., water, electricity, ethernet connection, cable, HVAC, etc.) are interrupted and repairs are needed and/or preventative maintenance is scheduled. Whenever possible, advance notice of such outages will be communicated via fliers, email, mobile text, and/or voicemail messages. In certain situations (e.g., severe weather, emergencies, accidents, etc.), advance notice may not be possible. In the event of an interruption in service, every effort will be made to correct the problem as quickly as possible.

h. Laundry

- All residents have easy access to free laundry facilities. Laundry facilities are located in Boling, Decosimo, Johnson Obear, Lockmiller, Stagmaier and West Campus residence halls. Guerry, Stophel, UC Foundation and Walker apartments are equipped with a washer and dryer in unit. The University's low-water, high-efficiency washing machines work best with laundry detergent labeled "HE" (high efficiency).
- The laundry facilities in Boling, Decosimo, Johnson Obear, Lockmiller, Stagmaier and West Campus halls are equipped with SPEED QUEEN app which informs residents which machines are available and when their clothes are ready. Residents can save time by downloading the app, adding a location pin: UTCHAT, and selecting their building location.
- Do not overload the machines. Overloaded machines will not clean clothes properly and may damage the machines. There must be at least three inches between the clothes and the top of the machines. Also, only clothes and fabric items should be washed. Residents may be held financially responsible for damages to machines that are overloaded. Overloading machines, as well as failing to clean lint traps, can lead to fire and damage to your clothing.
- Abandoned laundry will be collected regularly or when reported. Residents attempting to locate missing laundry should contact their Resident Director. Unclaimed items will be donated and/or discarded after 30 days.

i. Mold and Mildew

- Housing and Residence Life is invested in providing healthy indoor air quality for all residents. When used correctly by students, the apartment HVAC systems can handle the humidity in southeast Tennessee. The following are suggestions for preventing and treating mold and mildew:
 - Clean regularly. Mold can grow in spaces that have slow air movement, such as a pile of clothes in a closet or among items stacked in a sink.
 - When liquids are spilled, clean and dry the whole area, including under furniture.
 - Leave the bathroom exhaust fan on even after you leave the shower.
 - Keep bathroom door open after showers to let the HVAC system circulate air to quickly eliminate high humidity caused by showering.
 - Hang damp towels, laundry, and clothes to dry completely.
 - Clean common shower mildew with household products designed for that.
 - Leave approximately a foot of space between furniture and windows.
 - Keep the thermostat Heat or Cool 68-72 Fan Speed Low or Medium. Set to AUTO.
 - Do not leave open windows and doors to the outside for extended periods of time.
 - Submit a maintenance request immediately if a door or window does not close properly.
 - Allow some space around HVAC vents and bedroom closet vents.
- If you are concerned about mold or mildew, submit a maintenance request in Manage My Housing.

j. Pest Control

- Housing and Residence Life contracts with a professional contractor for monthly pest control services. Residents can assist in the effort to control pests by keeping rooms/apartments clean, food in sealed containers, and doors/windows closed. When a continual or severe pest problem arises, residents should submit a maintenance request in Manage My Housing to report the problem. Extreme and seasonal changes in weather and construction near our facilities may trigger the appearance of insects and other pests in our facilities.

k. Property Insurance and University Liability

- The University is not responsible for loss of/or damage to personal property due to fire, water, theft, or mysterious disappearance. The University suggests that students protect their belongings through an insurance company policy. We suggest that you check your parents' homeowner's policy for possible coverage. For more information on how to protect your items on campus check out this website: <https://www.utc.edu/finance-and-administration/emergency-services/police/forms>

l. Security

- Residents can leave belongings in their rooms during the holiday break, but UTC will not claim responsibility for these items. Campus security will continue to be on duty during the break. For security reasons, please remember to close and lock windows, lower blinds, and lock and dead bolt all doors.

m. Trash Removal

- Residents must dispose of all trash in the dumpsters located around the residential facilities. Residents who fail to do so will be held accountable through the conduct process and may be charged financially. During move in and move out, trash chutes in buildings where they exist, will be locked so resident must take the trash to the dumpsters themselves.

n. Water Leaks

- Leaks in faucets, toilet tanks, and other plumbing equipment can waste water and ruin fixtures. Such leaks are considered an emergency and residents must report them to the RA on-call or go to your complex office during normal business hours. Failure to report problems can lead to mold and mildew and possible charges to residents.

o. Windows

- It is not permissible to hang or place anything in or on the window that may be viewed from outside the building other than blinds or curtains (hung with a tension rod).
- Window screens should never be removed. If a window screen is missing, it should be reported to the Resident Director immediately. If a window screen is discovered to be missing, the resident(s) will be charged for replacement. Residents should never throw anything from a window. Doing so may result in disciplinary action.

Community Living

Living as a member of a cooperative community teaches residents to respect the rights of others and advocate for their own rights. Housing and Residence Life recognizes the need for an atmosphere conducive to academic success and to protect the health, safety, and security of all residents and their belongings.

Rights and Responsibilities

- The right to study, read, relax, and sleep without measurable interference, noise, or distractions, and the responsibility to help others have these rights.
- The right to feel safe in the residence halls and the responsibility to help ensure the safety for others in the building.
- The right to have respect shown for one's privacy and the responsibility to respect the privacy of others.
- The right to have respect shown for one's personal property and the responsibility to respect other's personal property as well as community property.
- The right to have visitors within the housing unit in accordance with policy and the responsibility for the behavior of those guests.

- The right to live in an area free of intimidation and physical or emotional harm and the responsibility to ensure this right for others.
- The right to a clean-living environment and the responsibility to help keep it clean.
- The right to maintain one's personal beliefs and values and the responsibility to respect the beliefs and values of others.

Please keep in mind that any individual's rights end when exercising those rights infringes on others. The housing facilities at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga are places for fun but are also places for study. In keeping with the mission of the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, housing facilities must have an atmosphere conducive to academic development. Residents whose behavior violates the rights of other members of the community may be subject to disciplinary action and removal from our communities.

Living with a Roommate

Fundamentals to a successful roommate situation:

- Get to know each other. Take time to learn what your roommate needs and expects.
- Learn to communicate effectively with one another. Tell each other what is and is not OK. Be honest!
- Establish guidelines. At the beginning of the year, decide the ground rules each of you can live by (i.e., sleep and study schedules).
- Respect each other's privacy. Ask for and give each other space when needed.
- Resolve conflict as it arises. Inevitably as the year goes on, the room appears to get smaller, and frustrations and irritations may grow.
- Deal with problems maturely and in a timely fashion. Talk with your RA about positive ways to deal with roommate conflicts.
- Be willing to compromise. Sharing a room involves give and take on each side.
- Be considerate, reasonable, and flexible.
- Stand up for your rights. Do not let the roommate situation be a one-sided affair. If you are uncomfortable with something, let your roommate know.
- Share responsibilities with your roommate/suitemates and be accountable for your actions.

Roommate Relationships

Housing and Residence Life stresses positive, assertive, and caring communication when working to resolve a roommate conflict no matter how large or small. Such communication will ensure that you are clearly stating your intentions and needs. It also ensures that the person you are communicating with feels they have the room to also assert their needs and intentions. Remember there can be a solution for all 7 situations or conflicts, and it is vital that all parties remain flexible and as objective as possible throughout the conflict.

One useful tool in conflict resolution is the use of "I" statements. "I" statements help create a message that is not offensive while specifically identifying your concerns, how they impact you, and what your roommate might do to resolve the problem. An example of the proper use of an "I" statement is:

- I feel angry when you turn on the overhead light when I am sleeping. Please use the lamp if you need light while I am sleeping.
- I feel annoyed when you leave your stuff on the side of the sink. Please put your personal items away after you have used them.

By adding a statement about what you will do to reflect your own expectations or make it easier for your roommate to live up to your expectation is also important. You might amend the above examples by saying:

- I know that I have a sleep schedule much different than yours, and I will try and sleep at more regular hours when I can.
- I haven't always put my things away either, and I will try to do this every time if you will.

Such additions show that you are willing to help resolve the conflict and acknowledge that the fault is not entirely with the other person.

Critical to conflict resolution is the art of listening. Listening, like any other skill or talent, must be honed with practice and commitment. Your RA can work with you to practice this skill. Since we know that much of listening (and more importantly letting the other person know they are being heard) is nonverbal, remember the SOLER acronym and you may be a more successful listener:

S – Square up to the speaker.

O – Open body posture.

L – Lean in.

E – Eye contact.

R – Relax.

If you use these tips, remain flexible with yourself and your roommates, and set realistic expectations, you are certain to be more successful than those who try to put their heads down and ignore a problem. Remember that your RA is always available if you take the time to ask for help.

Roommate Agreements

Within the first month, you and your roommates/suitemates will develop a roommate agreement facilitated by your RA. The RA's role is neutral and will engage you in dialogue. The resulting roommate agreement document is not intended to be an exhaustive contract for how you will act around your roommates, but as a guideline for conduct in shared and private space accessible to those with whom you share a home. The roommate agreement should be agreed upon by all parties and will be kept on file in your RD's office. Amendment or revision of your roommate agreement may take place in a follow up meeting involving all your roommates, your RA, and likely your RD. Violations of the roommate agreement may carry the same weight as violations of any other housing policy or section of the Student Code of Conduct and may result in action through the student conduct process.
