

Become a ROLLINS SCHOLAR

utc.edu/rollins-scholars

The Rollins Scholars program in the Gary W. Rollins College of Business at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga offers financial support and opportunities for first year students to make lasting connections with other business majors, UTC faculty, and Chattanooga-area business leaders.

As a Rollins Scholar, you'll be part of a community—attending core classes with fellow scholars, living in the same residence hall, and participating in hands-on, educational experiences outside the classroom. You will also be involved in a variety of activities related to your major, including networking events at UTC and in the city.

Program highlights

- $4,000 per year in scholarship support (for a total of four years)
- An enhanced business curriculum
- Guaranteed university housing that includes common spaces exclusive to Rollins Scholars
- Study abroad and internship opportunities
- Professional development and career preparation
- A series of special programs, informal gatherings, and networking opportunities with Rollins College of Business faculty, alumni and business leaders

Benefits

- Higher rates of academic success and graduation
- Increased satisfaction with college experience
- Higher rates of participation in campus and community activities
- Increased career opportunities following graduation
