Johnson Obear Apartments

Map Description

General Description

Johnson Obear Apartments is arranged around a large central courtyard labeled “Pavilions.” Apartment stacks form a boundary around much of the site. Each stack is labeled with an identifier such as x01, x02, x03, and so on, representing vertically stacked apartments.

Spatial Organization

The apartments surround the central Pavilions courtyard on all sides. Buildings line the inside of the property boundary, while labeled streets and parking lots frame the outside edges. Community features such as a laundry room, community room, office, dumpsters, elevators, and parking lots are positioned around and within the apartment blocks.

Labels and Notations

- Apartment stacks labeled with identifiers in the x01 through x35 range.
- Laundry Room x12 located in the upper-right apartment wing.
- Community Room x16 placed near the right side of the courtyard.
- Office labeled along a short interior stack of apartments inside the courtyard.
- Elevator labels shown at two locations along the interior edge of the apartments.
- Dumpster labels marked near the interior and near the perimeter.
- Parking areas labeled Lot 6 Reserved, Lot 40 Reserved, Lot 42 Reserved, and Lot 52 General.

Layout Summary

Apartment Units

- Along Houston Street at the top of the map, apartment stacks labeled x04, x05, x06, x07, x08, and x09 form a continuous row.
- Continuing along the same top edge toward the right, an additional wing contains units x10 and x11, Laundry Room x12, and units x13 and x14.
- Along Oak Street on the left interior edge, three stacked apartments labeled x01, x02, and x03 form a vertical column.
- In the central-lower portion of the apartment area, one horizontal row of units is labeled x28, x29, x30, x31, x32, and x33.
- Connecting to x33, near the right side of the courtyard, a narrow interior column directly below the Office contains apartment stacks x35 and x34.
- Directly below that row, another horizontal row contains units x27, x26, x25, x24, and x23.

- Along the right interior edge of the courtyard, a short vertical column of units is labeled x17, x18, and x19.
- Near the lower-right corner of the apartment area, a short horizontal row of units is labeled x22, x21, and x20.
